We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand,
And together we’ll spread the news that God is in our land;

We will work with each other, we will work side by side,
And we’ll guard each man’s dignity and save each man’s pride;

All praise to the Father, from whom all things come,

The circuit-ridin' preacher traveled thru the mire and mud,
Told about the fiery furnace and of Noah and the flood;
He preached the way to heaven was by water and the blood,
As he went riding, singing down the trail.

His rifle may be rusty where it hangs upon the wall,
His Bible may be dusty, maybe never read at all,
His voice has now been silenced 'till the resurrection call,
But his truth goes marching on.

I prayed I wouldn't be swept away I prayed I wouldn't be swept away

Then as I felt His arms round me I opened my eyes and began to see
He said my child come in from the rain My child come in from the rain

He said my grace is sufficient for what you've done
I offer it free If you'll only come
My child come in from the rain My child come in from the rain

The rain was gone no longer on the ground There was a rainbow of light all around
My child come in from the rain My child come in from the rain

I am so glad I came in from the rain

Now I've a hope that will surely endure, After the passing of time;

As we go on may we keep you,

Ever precious in our sight.

As we're climbing and rapelling,
Oh the time just seems to fly,
Soon we'be setting up our campsite
Underneath the starry sky.
Oh, the schedule will be changing,
But God's lo-ve never will.
Always help us to remember,
What you did on Calvary's Hill.

When it comes to adventure,
We've certainly had our share.
From Rockford to the Badlands,
We know we're in God's care.
From lug nuts, to the rescue,
We have felt His presence near,
Won't you come and go with us,
And enjoy His love so dear.

Oh the storm clouds may be raging,
And the winds of strife may blow,
but we know the love of Jesus,
will protect us as we go.
Though the fires they may be burning,
On the mountain high above,
But we're safe in the arms of Jesus
Showing once again God's love.

From Illinois and Oklahoma
To the Rocky's misty height
God is with us we fear no evil
As the trail leads through the night.
In the sunshine and in the shadow
In the rain and in the snow
God is beside us to lead and guide us
And protect us as we go.

I heard the bells on Christmas Day, Their old familiar carols play

Peace on earth, good will to men

C                    G                   Fmaj7         Am
